

Paragraph Writing - Example 1A

The following paragraph describes an experience. It does not have commentary in it. Paraphrase and summarize the information requested below.

Driving in the fog to Sacramento frustrates drivers along the highway. Although it is nearly noon, the dense fog still obscures the road signs until passing them. No gas stations appear from the freeway to fill the tank approaching the empty mark. In addition, a police car appears ahead driving forty miles per hour holding back traffic. Finally, reaching Sacramento brings a great sense of relief permeating the body and mind.
