

Each paragraph contains five sentences. Identify each sentence beginning with one of the five types: Prepositional (Prep), Dependent Clause (DC), Appositive Phrase (A), Participial Phrase (P), or Infinitive Phrase (I).

Doug, my younger brother, lives in Seattle. In a summer month, I go and visit him. Taking a plane, I fly to Seattle and hang out with him. Because Seattle is north and near the end of the Western Time Zone, the sun stays out just a little past 10 this time of year. To appreciate that time of day, I ride a bike into the late night sunset.

Sent 1 _____ Sent 2 _____ Sent 3 _____ Sent 4 _____ Sent 5 _____

The weather in Seattle, usually cool and rainy, is called a Marine West Climate. Since geography affects climate, it is good to know what kind of climate you have to deal with when traveling. To visit any place, it is a good idea to look at the weather patterns and forecasts. On occasion, the weather patterns are somewhat different so forecasts are also good to know. Traveling for enjoyment, one must know how to prepare for it to guarantee success.

Sent 1 _____ Sent 2 _____ Sent 3 _____ Sent 4 _____ Sent 5 _____

Over last summer, Doug and I visited Canada. Taking a ferry, we went up through the cold waters of the North Pacific. To make it more interesting, we specifically took a ferry that made a point to go out and watch whales as they ate and swam. After we watched the animals jump out of the water and herd for food, we went to Canada. Victoria Island, the western-most Province of Canada, is beautiful.

Sent 1 _____ Sent 2 _____ Sent 3 _____ Sent 4 _____ Sent 5 _____

To visit another country, you need a passport. If you do not have one, you cannot enter another nation – even Canada and Mexico. After filling out all the paper work, pay $150, snap a photo of yourself, and the State Department will send you the passport. The State Department, the agency in charge of relations with other countries, will not only send you a passport but also a list of countries you may not want to visit. Traveling to other countries, tourists enjoy themselves, but there are rules to follow.

Sent 1 _____ Sent 2 _____ Sent 3 _____ Sent 4 _____ Sent 5 _____

On my last day in Seattle, we went to MT. Rainer. The mountain, the largest active volcano in the U.S., is so beautiful. Coming home after this trip, I found it to be bitter sweet. To get back to Oklahoma, I took a bus ride to enjoy the scenery along the way, but I still like Seattle. Once I get back home, I love looking at the pictures and think of the good times I had with my brother.

Sent 1 _____ Sent 2 _____ Sent 3 _____ Sent 4 _____ Sent 5 _____

Bonus: On back, express the same message below using all five different beginnings. Same sentence – different beginnings! The DC is below; write the same information now with the other four beginnings.

After John and his two best friends named Bill and Bob went shopping at the mall, they traveled across the street to enjoy a steak dinner at Outback Steakhouse.