

Welcome to 2016-new seats-pick wise

4 January 2016

- Welcome Back!!! Only 19 weeks to go - Sorry, 20 if you include Spring Break.
- Clean out binders - KEEP ANYTHING SERVING AS A FUTURE RESOURCE TO HELP DOWN THE ROAD, such as anything that may guide your writing, anything related to literary terms, and past bell work.
- Poetry Terms Defined - NEED 1 Sheet of Paper and Pen
- TWA #3 - Raft - Focusing on Word Choice

- Homework -
 - > Finish RAFT Draft #1
 - > Finish poetry terms with definitions and begin studying each one, especially new ones!

Poetry Terms

Using the definitions below, create notes over the poetry terms on a sheet of paper; use these definitions. Underline each term and skip a line after each term's definition. Be preparing for a quiz.

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| _____ 1. simile | _____ 6. internal Rhyme | _____ 11. alliteration |
| _____ 2. repetition | _____ 7. pun | _____ 12. assonance |
| _____ 3. theme | _____ 8. hyperbole | _____ 13. symbolism |
| _____ 4. personification | _____ 9. metaphor | _____ 14. oxymoron |
| _____ 5. onomatopoeia | _____ 10. rhythm | _____ 15. rhyme scheme |
| | | _____ 16. Idiom |

- A. a person, place or thing that represents something beyond itself
- B. a figure of speech in which human qualities are given to an object, animal or idea
- C. the pattern of stressed and unstressed syllables in a line of poetry
- D. a figure of speech that compares two things that have something in common but are thought to be uncommon
- E. a phrase where two words contradict each other
- F. rhyme occurring within a line of poetry
- G. The humorous use of a word or words that has more than one possible meaning
- H. a word or group of words is repeated throughout a selection
- I. a comparison of two things using like or as
- J. repetition of vowel sounds within two or more words
- K. the message about life or human nature the writer wants the reader to get
- L. obvious exaggeration used for effect
- M. The pattern of rhyme within a poem denoted by a different letter of the alphabet for every rhyming sound
- N. the repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of two or more words.
- O. the naming of a thing or action by a vocal imitation
- P. a figure of speech so common interpretation is not necessary, and most have heard it understand receiving

John Bohannon
Mr. Thompson
English - 1
5 Jan 2015

Poetry Terms

1. Simile - a comparison of two things using like or as
2. Repetition - The literary technique in which a word or group of words is repeated throughout a selection
3. theme -

TWA #3 - Persuasive Word Choice RAFT

Students will be expected to complete a short RAFT writing.

Role - advertisement writer/encourager/sales person

Audience - consumer perhaps/someone you know

Format - paragraph comprised of 45-50 words

Topic – Entice the consumer/someone to want do one of the following:

1. see a movie

3. eat a dish

2. read a book

4. visit somewhere

