

Character Reflection

For each character below, students will utilize the list of character traits found on the reverse of this page to complete the chart. Explain how the character is connected to Romeo and/or Juliet, state ONE trait from the list, describe three events illustrating the trait, and include the act(s)/scene(s) where the event(s) occurred. A trait can only be used once. The text to help find the act/scene is available online.

Character	Connection to Romeo and/or Juliet	Character Trait	Act and Scene	Description of events from the play exemplifying the character trait
Romeo	himself
Juliet	herself
Mercutio
Tybalt

Friar Laurence

Great authors do not simply list specific traits for a character in a book he or she writes. Instead, information is provided that allows the reader to infer the character traits based on the character's dialogue or actions.
