

Writing Commentary

For each topic sentence, there are three concrete details. Write a sentence or two which adds at least two commentaries for each concrete detail and a closing sentence. A closing sentence is simply a general commentary on the main idea of the paragraph. Remember CDs could show up on a video; CM WOULD NOT!

That football game will go down in history as one of the most exciting.

CD1 - The score remained tied at zero to zero until late in the fourth quarter.

CD2 - Johnson broke free for a last minute touchdown with less than a minute left.

CD3 - The Redskins went on to win the game despite a near tying score in the last seconds by the Trojans.

Closing Sentence: _____

This summer break stands ready to go down in the record books for most fun.

CD1 - Susie and Jenny plan to travel alone to Miami and Daytona for a great getaway.

CD2 - After returning from Florida, a plane will whisk them 14,000 feet into the sky for their first jump.

CD3 - They plan to end the summer with a shopping trip to New York City.

Closing sentence: _____
